

New York

The Big Apple— Come take a bite

New York City is one of the most well-known cities in the world; or is it? Did you know that the Three Stooges tried to become real estate moguls to pay the bills? Or that there was a secret subway 34 years before the “official” subway opened? That Manhattan is not actually an island? The city that is so visited and so loved has those attractions that everyone knows, then there are those things that only a true historian of this great city would realize.

New York City itself comprises 5 boroughs, 301 square miles of land and waterways, and is home for 8,643,437 people and has something to offer anyone and everyone.

Entertainment and Leisure

New York City has everything you could want in entertainment and leisure: art, museums, theater, music, parks, zoos, dining of every type and cuisine. New York has boating excursions, world famous amusement parks, romantic carriage rides. It is one of the world hubs of trade, industry and finance. Shopping to meet every taste and pocketbook.

There are many known and unknown attractions in New York. Among them are: Rockefeller Center, The New York Harbor Islands, South Street Seaport, Greenwich Village, SoHo, Tribeca, China Town, Little Italy, MOMA, Gracie Mansion, the historic Grand Central Station and more.
